“Profound simplicity”

“Absolutely essential reading for every living person”

“Timely, this message is the answer I've been looking for my whole life.”

“The most valuable book I've ever read.”

“Shockingly practical, entertaining, concise, potent.”

“I read it from start to finish in just a few minutes, then I did it all over again.”

Dedication

Within us all there is a magnificent spark of love and power, a spark that has waited patiently, observing, watching, for its time to shine.

This book is dedicated to those sparks of love and power who are ready to realize that the time is NOW.

One

Euphoria Rising is a call to action.

Inside of you, and everyone, there is a pulsating magnificence, a living fire, a potency, a love that is beyond measure.

You are magnificent.

Everyone is.

It's time to wake up. It's time to let the genie out of the bottle.

Two

There is something that you are here to do.

Your life has a purpose.

Cut through all illusions and deceptions and external suggestions, and find your purpose.

It's waiting for you to find it. Your mission, your purpose, if you choose to accept it, is the most exciting adventure, the most thrilling, the most exhilarating, the most fulfilling, the most wonderful, the most incredible life you could ever imagine.

The first step is to find it.

What kind of life would you have if you could not fail? If everything you tried and persisted at came to pass?

Who are the people that you are here to love and serve and inspire? What new life possibilities will you offer them?

You know who they are, and you know the opportunities you would absolutely love to offer them.

Every person has similar seeds within them, every person is drawn by love and compassion, by a calling within them, to reach out to specific people with some form of love or service or offering or inspiring lift.

And most people have also felt powerless to love/serve/offer/inspire those that they are here for.

We have, almost universally, compromised ourselves, by making excuses for why we cannot do what we are here to do.

But there is a solution...

Three

Find what you are here to do.

You already know what it is.

Strip away all excuses.

You must first commit yourself to living the life that you were born to live, the life that aligns with your heart, the life that will give you what you truly want: genuine happiness, total emotional fulfillment, and when you give everything you've got to make your vision real you'll go to bed exhausted and euphoric.

All of your dreams can come true.

No matter how impossible it seems, no matter how imposing the obstacles, no matter how far off the goal may seem... simply persist: and every step you take, every breath,

every moment becomes a living expression of who you really are, the person you were meant to become.

You are Euphoria Rising.

Four

The world is changing, because people like you are choosing to live with the full love and power of their hearts.

There is NOTHING that can stop a person on fire with this sacred love, the rightful intensity that we were all meant to experience every moment of our lives.

This love is not a fast burning flash that fades into ashes and nothing; this love is the slow burning fire that is meant to last a life-time and beyond. This love is the stuff of legends and legacies.

Every person who allows this inferno to consume from his or her life the unnecessary, the distractions, the superfluous, will find life suddenly becomes simple, focused, clear.

Upon completion of this book you will have a choice, to seize every precious moment of your life and live it the way you know your heart desires, or to go back to the world of unconsciousness and seek escape from your own awareness.

Five

Euphoria Rising.

You are Euphoria Rising.

Your life becomes the legend, the epic, the magnificent adventure, the delicious euphoric masterpiece that it should always have been.

Every person who chooses to allow this intensity to live through them silently opens the door to a new world, silently gives permission to all others to discover it as well.
